

City of Seattle

Mike McGinn, Mayor

Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities

RECOGNITION OF THE LEGACY OF PAUL STEVEN MILLER

WHEREAS, the Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities was created to promote the full participation of people with disabilities into all areas of economic, political, and community life in the City of Seattle and to eliminate discrimination; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities gratefully pursues this mission in the company of many other advocates; and

WHEREAS, the Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities wishes to recognize the special achievements, humanity, and legacy of one of the City's great disability advocates; and

WHEREAS, Paul Steven Miller served people with disabilities on a local and national level; and

WHEREAS, Paul Steven Miller served as Commissioner for the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission under President Bill Clinton and as special advisor to President Barak Obama; and

WHEREAS, Paul Steven Miller was a scholar dedicated to disability rights including genetic discrimination and employment opportunity; and

WHEREAS, Paul Steven Miller was the director and a key supporter of the University of Washington Disability Studies program and was a beloved professor at the University of Washington School of Law; and

WHEREAS, Paul Steven Miller will be missed by his friends, colleagues, wife, and daughters;

NOW THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, that the Seattle Commission for People with disabilities recognizes and honors Paul Steven Miller for his lifetime of service to the disability community; and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, that the Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities joins with the many individuals with and without disabilities who honor the memory of Paul Steven Miller in striving for the inclusion and humanity of all people.

Adopted October 21, 2010

Seattle Commission for People with Disabilities

Laura Obara Gramer,
Co-Chair

Erica Sekins,
Co-Chair